Introduction to Differentiating Instruction 1 credit | $410

Friday, Nov. 13 (5-9pm) and Saturday, Nov. 14 (8am-4pm)
Dana Sommerfeld, Instructor

This course provides teachers with a basic understanding of the process of differentiated instruction, and gives them a framework to develop strategies for effective differentiation in a regular classroom. Dana Sommerfeld is a certified teacher, Principal, and director of instruction who has worked in the Chippewa Falls School District for 15 years.

Useful Spanish for Elementary and Intermediate Teachers 1 credit | $410

Friday, Dec. 4 (5-9pm) and Saturday, Dec. 5 (8am-4pm)
Mario Friedel, Instructor

This course provides non-Spanish-speaking teachers with the skills and resources needed to share the Spanish language and culture with elementary and middle school students. Participants will learn basic practical Spanish. Mario Friedel is the Principal of Ladysmith Elementary School, and formerly served as District Administrator for the Ladysmith-Hawkins School District.
